

Manistique Sno-Baller Tournament Presents:

Ruthie Bolton

(Superstar, Christian, Role Model)

Born in McClain, Mississippi, Ruthie was the 16th of 20 children of Rev. Linwood and Leola Bolton. She has over 105 nieces and nephews. Ruthie's father, and mentor, gave her guidance throughout her younger years, which was the foundation that ultimately led to her to success. She played her collegiate ball at Auburn University, leading them to a Final Four appearance. She obtained two Olympic Gold Medals, a WNBA championship ring, and has played basketball worldwide.

Today, Ruthie strives to give back to society and the community the same wonderful guidance, direction and inspiration she received from her father. Should you have the chance to hear her story, it's a story you'll never forget. So if you're a young adult who has dreams to fulfill, buckle up your seat belt and get ready for "the ride of your lifetime". Just like Ruthie did...you can make your dreams come true.

Ruthie will be attending our tournament to speak to all of the girls and community members/guests. She will also be doing a book signing for her new release "The Ride of A Lifetime." We are proud to have her come and motivate our young people. We hope you can make it January 7th, 2012.
